“Wine is one of the most civilized things in the world and one of the most natural things of the world that has been brought to the greatest perfection, and it offers a greater range for enjoyment and appreciation than, possibly, any other purely sensory thing.”

2016 Alphonse Mellot 'La Moussiere', Sancerre, Loire, France	20	28
Biodynamic and hand harvested. Very fresh, bright, with a classically chalky perfumed character that marks the wines of Alphonse Mellot. A simply lovely palate, very fresh and bright, with a slightly perfumed substance but also a very bright and direct acid backbone. This is fresh, with a very typical feminine perfume.
2016 Henri Bourgeois 'Sancerre D'Antan' Sauvignon Blanc, Sancerre, France	46	46
This wine is full of aromas such as lime, verbena but also delicate mineral nuances (flint). In mouth, fresh touch of grapefruits, almonds, hawthorn and light touch of coconuts. Its minerality gives it a great length. Concentrated, full and fine, equally excellent when young or up to 6 – 8 years ageing.
2014 Church Road, 'TOM' Chardonnay, Hawke's Bay, New Zealand	45	62
A core of fruit suggestive of citrus, citrus blossom, white peach, and fresh fig provides the base that carries layers of savoury complexity including toasted hazelnut or cashew, brioche and driftwood smoke. On the palate, notes of roasted hazelnut, nougat and toasted brioche, along with a wisp of woodsmoke and struck flint, combine to bring a serious savoury element to the wine.
2020 Dry River Chardonnay, Martinborough, New Zealand	21	30
A melee of roasted Chestnuts, chalk and floral notes, are supplemented with biscotti, custard, peach and nectarine. Fresh lime sorbet and lemon blossom lift the aromatics to keep the nose playful. White flesh peach, Braeburn apple and green kiwifruit, happily make way for salivating citrus fruit and silken creamy texture. An energetic back palate lifts the wine and allows for a long lingering.
2019 Hans Herzog Chardonnay, Martinborough, New Zealand	19	27
Refreshingly floral and vibrant aromas of ripe stonefruit and honeyed quince. With a rich texture and complexity, this wine is perfectly balanced by fine acidity and great minerality, offering a tantalizingly long finish. This epitome of elegance is one to enjoy now or keep for years to come.
2019 Hugel 'Classic' Pinot Gris, Alsace, France	13	20

At first sight, a straw-yellow robe with nice, slightly coppery highlights. The aroma is youthful; the variety has yellow fruit and floral notes that remain in their most simple state when the wine is in its early years. Once aged in the bottle there will be hints of more mature fruit: fig, apricot, pear and the more typical notes of noble wood, waxed furniture and undergrowth that will add further to its complexity. The flavour is rounded and mouth-watering, light yet full-bodied and held together with the property's typical sense of equilibrium by a pleasantly acid structure that makes it a perfect table wine.

2020 Dry River 'Craighall'

18

26

Riesling,

Martinborough, New Zealand

White peach, ripe floral notes and mineral freshness show a dynamic between power and restraint. Rose's Lime cordial, hints of nougat with orange and mandarin flesh and fennel and clove spices. A voluptuous densely packed palate with texture and fruit weight makes a real statement. A friendly acidity salivates and draws the attention to the mid palate. Here, orange and grapefruit rind with citrus fruit dominate their space.

2019 Gisselbrecht

Riesling, Alsace, France

Beautiful bright yellow colour in the glass. The nose is airy, floral with fresh fruit and citrus notes. This wine is lively, dry and elegant with good freshness.

2016 Domaine Vincent

Carême 'Le Clos'

Chenin Blanc,

Vouvray, Loire

Brilliant light yellow. Attractive creamy nose of ripe quince, hint of confectionery. On the palate, a concentrated, tense medium dry with precise, focused expression that is quite impressive, a chalky dimension and some spiceous.

2017 Hans Herzog 'Mistral'

21

31

Viognier/Marsanne,

Marlborough, New Zealand

This dry blockbuster with its 'off-the-charts' aromas of apricot, exotic fruit and lemon verbena will age beautifully, but given its flamboyance we are predicting you will have enjoyed it long before then. Great depth and richness enchanted by flavours and aromas reminiscent of a hot summer walk through a Mediterranean herb garden. The creamy mouth filling texture is followed by a long lasting and spicy finish.

2018 Mas de Daumas Gassac

25

36

White Blend,

Languedoc Roussillon, France

This extraordinary wine is a result of a unique marriage between Viognier, Petit Manseng, Chardonnay and Chenin Blanc. Refined nose with white fruits, peach, plum and wild flowers. A touch of smoke and spice. Delicate, elegant palate gradually revealing its amazing, diverse array of romatics. Youthful sourness on the finish.

2016 Domaine Henri Boillot

32

45

'Meursault'

Cote De Beaune,

Burgundy, France

Stunning, fresh and bright with wet stone, stone fruit and flint notes, this full-bodied masterpiece has great precision and length with a finish that lingers on the palate long after the wine has left your lips. Henri Boillot is an old-school vigneron who works his vineyards on almost a daily basis as well as crafting some of the most noteworthy whites.

51

Pinot Noir,
Martinborough, New Zealand

The grapes are grown on a slope of an elevated terrace of stony soils where an ancient dried river bed delivered nutrient rich soil perfect for growing Pinot Noir. Dense, dark cherry colour. Great depths of aromatics with notes of plum, dark cherry, sage, thyme and fresh bark coming through. The palate shows a wonderful level of elegance with a roundness of red fruit and savoury round tannins.

2019 Joblot 'Givry' 1er cru

24

35

Pinot Noir, Côtes Chalonnaise,
Burgundy, France

Jean-Marc Joblot has built himself a reputation as one of Burgundy's best winemakers. Influenced by Burgundian legend Henri Jayer, Jean-Marc's winemaking style is celebrated by critics for lending charm and finesse. The Joblots farm 13.5 ha sustainably in Givry - 9 ha of which are exclusively in premier cru vineyards. A very expressive nose with pure, ripe red and black fruit aromas which lead to a silky, smooth palate with velvety tannins, great length and aromatic persistence.

2018 Cloudy Bay 'Te Wahi'

Pinot Noir,
Central Otago, New Zealand

Deep, dark and intense. On the nose, you'll find dusky brambles, wild strawberries and hints of violet. The palate is elegant and abounds with damson and hedgerow fruit. Dense tannins and vibrant freshness bring tension, balance and clarity, drawing to a long and focused finish.

2020 Dry River

Pinot Noir,
Martinborough, New Zealand

The palate shows a youthful intensity with a tendency to speak with great clarity. However, another more serene voice commands the fruit to spread out and surrender to the maze of tannins and juicy acidity that ascends from underneath. They bring a degree of order and longevity through their ripe phenolic compounds. The restrained power and silky,

2014 Trinity Hill 'Homage'

32

45

Syrah, Hawke's Bay, New Zealand

The 2014 Homage is beautifully floral with interwoven berry purity and oak sophistication. This is a darker fruited vintage with brambly, blackberry notes dominating the aromatics. There is a dimension of florality and seamlessness coming from increased vine age and the presence of whole bunch fermentation. 2014 has produced a wine that is very powerful and fragrant. The wine shows great concentration and weight with a very crucial elegance. The structure is tight and tense which will allow the wine to age gracefully for many years (10+).

2020 Domaine Jean-Michel Gerin Syrah, Saint-Joseph, Rhône, France	21	31

2016 Paul Jaboulet 'Pierre Aiguille' Grenache / Syrah / Mourvedre, Gigondas, Rhone, France	17	25

2018 Mas Blanc 'Banyuls Cuvee Rimage' Grenache Noir, Roussillon, France	18

Banyuls is one of France's best-kept secrets for sweet wine. Classically it is fortified to build upon the richness of the grapes, but the rimage is all about retaining the freshness and youth of the wine. This wine spends less time on the skins after mutage (fortification) than many other examples of Banyuls, which is when most of the fruity flavours are brought into the wine.

Harvested in over-maturity, the Chenin Blanc reveals an elegant concentration of aromas and sugars, with notes of pear and quince. The natural acidity of the variety procures a great balance to this sweet Vouvray, complete with fresh finish.
