

VALENTINE'S WITHOUT CLICHÉS:
SOTOGRADE TO SHARE YOUR WAY

At SO/ Sotogrande, haute cuisine by Nicolas Isnard, Thalasso-inspired wellness, and a stay overlooking the Mediterranean combine for an escape designed to be enjoyed in good company.

Sotogrande, January 27th 2026 – SO/ Sotogrande SPA & Golf Resort, the five-star hotel located in one of the most exclusive areas of the Andalusian countryside, elevates Valentine's Day into a stylish getaway. Pleasure, well-being, and shared time set the true "dress code" through a sensory experience that blends signature cuisine, spa rituals, and rest in one of the South's most exclusive enclaves, designed for sharing without labels.

The resort proposes a sophisticated February 14th to be enjoyed from this haven of peace.

A Michelin-Starred Gastronomic Journey

The experience begins with a dinner created by Michelin-starred chef Nicolas Isnard at Cortijo Santa María 1962. The renowned chef presents a six-course tasting menu inspired by Andalusian and Moroccan fusion, prepared with local ingredients and suppliers. Highlights include: Southern Roses: Scallop and avocado rose, cumin-tomato water, bitter orange, and Chefchaouen olive oil; Desert Ravioli: Prawn ravioli, intense saffron sauce, wild mint emulsion, and black lemon butter; Red Passion of the Atlas and Seville: Beef tenderloin with Andalusian spices, Sherry-infused date purée, ras el hanout jus, and smoked piquillo peppers with beetroot.

Wellness and Luxury Accommodation

The sensory journey continues at Sotogrande Spa & Wellness with the "Deep Sea Relax – Thalasso Inspired" experience for two. This includes access to the hydrothermal circuit, saunas, and jacuzzis, followed by a couples' wellness ritual designed to relax the body and calm the mind.

The evening is completed with a luxury stay including breakfast, designed to unwind, enjoy the surroundings, and celebrate in style. At SO/ Sotogrande, Valentine's stops being the "cheesiest date of the year" and becomes the perfect excuse for slow travel and self-care. It is a getaway where luxury is measured in shared time, silences facing the Mediterranean, and plans meant to be enjoyed—as a couple, with friends, or your own way—without labels or artifice.
