/WELCOME TO PARIS

A hotel rooted in the world of fashion and design

The SO/ Collection has come to Paris for the first time. The new flagship of the Ennismore group's hotel collection, SO/Paris has a front row seat to the Seine.

More than just a hotel, the new location is a journey along the water and a hub of creation, where fine art and fashion collide on every floor.

THE LOBBY

The Lobby

The architectural firm RDAI, represented by Denis Montel, was the mastermind behind the interior spaces. Step into the lobby, and you get an immediate sense of the place: daring and unlike anything you've seen before.

« Good Vibes »

The Lobby story telling by Denis Montel

Bedecked with concentric rings that evoke rippling water on an otherwise calm surface, the front door recalls the decorative metalwork of certain Parisian buildings.

« The flooring is made of rich marble, pieced together to resemble a peacock tail, like a traditional Parisian paving stone. »

« On the side walls, staggered panels of amber glass resemble the plinths of Haussmann façades. The terrazo bases of the walls and columns play homage to the highest flood marking of the Seine from 1910. »

“The wall seems to come alive with contour lines, like a topographic map of the former Île Louviers on which the building is located. Coupled with a collaboration with Neil Beloufa, the French Algerian artist who created a circular resin masterpiece whose appearance varies depending on the observers vantage point and the light as it changes throughout the day.»

BONNIE

PARIS NEW-YORK

«She is beautiful and her name is Bonnie», whispered Serge Gainsbourg in his deep voice in the early 70's.

Woman of power, she dominates the entire of Paris with confidence and passion.
Generous and happy, Bonnie bewitches and confuses.
A bit provocative but always elegant, Bonnie evokes a retro-chic, comforting and lively place perched on the roof of the SO/ Paris.

BONNIE

I LOVE (TO EAT) PARIS

Bonnie loves Paris, which is very grateful to her, but she also likes to cross the Atlantic to add a New York twist in the plate.

In the plate, the product is king, and it is always a product of choice.

A chic Parisian brasserie spirit hovers over the gourmet and often spectacular menu, where the sea has pride of place but leaves a place of honor to a few carefully chosen meats. The recipes, festive and iconic can be shared... or not.

BONNIE RESTAURANT

At Bonnie's, life is lived in the moment. But the great classics of the 60's-70's are brought up to date in design, music and cuisine.

Under the precise and emotional guidance of Jordane Arrivetz of the Notoire agency, the panoramic view takes on cosmic allure and the disconnection borders on weightlessness. A summit tasting in a retrochic setting for lovers of the capital.

BAR

The bar's library of mirrors, black stone bar and a marbled counter reflect all the beauty around. On the floor, stripes alternate with a midnight blue carpet like the Seine at midnight. Long sofas and curly woolen armchairs meander gracefully and offer the most beautiful views of Paris.

With their heads in the clouds, against a backdrop of soul funk, groovy hits and a few Latina songs, guests come together to celebrate life with champagne, a glass of wine or a cocktail.

BONNIE CLUB

16th floor: welcome to the golden age of cool. Bonnie opens the doors of his club every Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday to a Paris New-York vibrating to the electro-disco rhythm of the 60s and 70s.

Big brown leather sofas, large windows offering a view on all Paris, explosive cocktails, there is a bit of Studio 54 in this new Parisian temple of the night where the evenings promise to be as stunning as the view.
